

The Dedication of the Lateran Basilica in Rome November 9, 2008

St. John Lateran, the first Christian basilica, was dedicated on November 9 in the year 324. This building is the cathedral of the pope- not just St. Peter's, but humble St. John Lateran. We celebrate all that it symbolizes: our unity in Christ, our call to be the community of believers, our worship and our going forth again and again to be Christ in the world. Let us ask for mercy for those times when we have not honored the temple we are.

Besides intimidating Pro-Life sidewalk counselors and running interference for women procuring abortions, Mark would escort women out the back door who had decided not to abort their babies in order to discourage Pro-Life efforts.
