

The Body and Blood of Christ

June 6, 2010

Today we remember that our God made himself food for us that we may come together in this holy meal as the body of Christ. Today we rejoice in the lavish abundance of our God, who feeds 5,000 people with only five loaves and a couple of fish. There are those who would have us believe that there is never enough. Let us believe in God's abundance

RESPECT LIFE - Sixty students from Mrs. Christine Blake's eighth grade Religion Class at IHM School submitted essays for the annual Parish Pro-Life Essay contest. Members of the Respect Life Committee read and judged the papers and were impressed by the students' knowledge of the Catholic Church's teachings. The excellent sources referenced in the essays and the passionate defense of innocent life expressed by the students affirm the value of a Catholic School education. IHM School and Mrs. Blake have prepared these young people well. At the Farewell Assembly the following students were presented with certificates and prize checks provided by our pastor, Fr. Mike, and presented by MD State Delegate Bill Frank, a valiant defender of life in our General Assembly: FIRST PLACE ($75) to Kylen Lane; SECOND PLACE ($50) to Brynly Wilson; THIRD PLACE ($25) to Lydia McDevitt; HONORABLE MENTION ($15 each) to Ami Crist, Kayla Lari, and Emily Murphy. The 10:30 am Sunday Mass will make its annual summer move to the Church beginning today, June 6. It was announced at the 10:30am Mass this past Sunday this will now be the permanent home for the 10:30am Mass. The Church is the normal gathering place for the community and should be the focal point for prayer and worship. It is and should be considered a sacred space. Also, since the use of the Hall for an "overflow" second Mass was eliminated several years ago, it has been decided that the expense of setting up the Hall weekly for Mass was an unnecessary expense. The Contemporary Music Ministry will continue to lead music at the 10:30 am Mass on a regular basis and the Children's Liturgy of the Word will also continue to be part of the 10:30am celebration. It is our hope that change will give all a greater sense of unity in our Parish worship.
