

The Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time November 14, 2010

Today's readings about the end of the world are sobering and yet we do know that we will someday leave this earth. What do we want to do before that time? How do we want to be remembered? What do we want to leave behind? Let us pray for wisdom and confidence and the presence of mind to live each day as a precious gift.

As the season of Advent approaches, recall that we must prepare ourselves for the Lord's coming both at Christmas and at the end of time. This reminds us, as does today's Gospel that we will suffer persecution for the sake of Christ from a world that does not care to know him. Help to bring Christ to the world!
