

The Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time October 17, 2010

Jesus exhorts us to pray without growing weary. And today is World Mission Sunday, when we are invited to unite in prayer with communities all over the world. Think of it! In Villages and great cities of every country on every continent, in every language known to humankind, people are worshipping God today. Let us join our voices to that great harmony of praise.

Jesus tells his disciples, “Pray always.” The key to discerning a vocation to the priesthood or religious life is prayer. Spend some time before the Blessed Sacrament, reflect on the Scriptures, and listen carefully for God’s voice speaking in you. Then, take the next step and contact Fr. Austin Murphy @ austin.murphy@archbalt.org

PRAY FOR VOCATIONS

Prayer Shawl Ministry - Care and Love of Knitting and Crocheting have been combined into a prayerful ministry that reaches out to those in need of comfort and solace. Would you like to participate in making a shawl as a gift of yourself? Contact Mary’s Hands, Pat Novak at 410-321-1438. Don’t know how to knit or crochet? Volunteers are available to get you started in the wonderful new Ministry at IHM.

MARRIAGE, DIVORCE, AND ANNULMENTS FROM A CATHOLIC PERSPECTIVE: The Tribunal of the Archdiocese of Baltimore will be giving a presentation concerning divorce and annulment from the Catholic perspective. This presentation will be helpful for divorced Catholics, those divorced who wish to marry a Catholic, and family and friends of those affected by divorce. The session will be on Tuesday, November 2, at 7:00 p.m. at St. Joseph (Cockeysville) in the Parish Center, room 3. No prior registration is required. See the notice on the bulletin board in the back of church for further details. You may also call 410-547-5533 for details.
