

Twenty-Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Sept. 18, 2011

Today we will hear the Gospel story of the laborers who all get paid the same amount, even though some work all day and some only an hour. As we begin a new year the Catechetical Theme is "Do this in memory of me." Every time we come to Mass, every time we receive Holy Eucharist, we are living out today's Gospel story. For whether we are saint or sinner, whether we have been Christians all our lives or we are new to the faith, we all receive the same gift – the gift of the Lord in the Eucharist.

PRAY FOR VOCATIONS

The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few. The Lord wants to hire you to work in his vineyard. Maybe he is calling you early in the morning to work all day or perhaps he is calling you later in the afternoon just before the day is over. It doesn't matter! The Lord is generous to all of his laborers so get out there and start working. For more information, Contact Rev. Austin A. Murphy, Director of Vocations at 410-547-5426
